2 Shelby Thorpe

GENERAL NOTES: all floral patterns should be on the smaller side to contrast Effy's larger patterns. It's important to accentuate the waist, whether it be with sweater length or belts, so that she doesn't feel frumpy (especially since Grace B. is short). Dresses should fit her well even if they're a loose a-line.

LOOK 1

BASE: Cream or white dress (it looks pretty yellow in the rendering, but leaning toward an off white would be best) with small blue florals. Shoes are brown mary janes (heeled).

3 Hannah Ferguson

Hannah should feel practical and casual, she doesn't put a ton of effort in, just a shirt and comfortable pants and sometimes layers. She feels more rooted in the past than the other characters, which is seen in the very 80s blouses.

Research Images (Tops)

Loose blouses, very 80's, eclectic patterns. Should feel more casual than dressy (especially in comparison to Effy's blouses). Should fall into the color palettes/tones of these images.

Research Images (Pants)

Navy polyester pants (ideally elastic waistband). The ideal is that they work with everything, but if we need a second pair something corduroy like these brown ones could work, or another dark polyester pant. The important thing is that they feel practical and comfortable rather than dressy.

Research Images (Shoes and Layers)

Very practical and simple loafers.

Mens corduroy work shirt (should be somewhat oversized and feel like it belonged to her husband.

Something like this for a coat

Loose, open vests (corduroy or sweater)

4 JOE SUTTER

GENERAL NOTES: Doesn't have an official uniform, but should always have his sheriff badge on when he's wearing his leather jacket. Whenever he's in one of his brown button up, the badge should be on his belt. The denim jacket is his "off-duty" jacket.

7 Eli

GENERAL NOTES: the green coat should remind us of an army jacket but isn't actually one. Everything is distressed and worn. He should have winter accessories (gloves, hat, scarf) that are all very mismatched.

LOOK 1

BASE: Ripped, dark wash jeans, tan flannel, denim shirt, green coat, and brown boots.
